

CASE REPORT BASED ON A PATIENT THAT YOU HAVE FOLLOWED DURING THE COURSE OF THE ATTACHMENT (SEE ACCOMPANYING NOTES)	Maximum score
1 Summary of problems and management Total: 5
2. Details of patient history including past medical history, family history etc including the patients ideas, concerns expectations and the effects of the patients problems and symptoms including assessment of at least one symptom (pain, nausea, vomiting etc) including an assessment of severity and its impact on the patient Total: 15
3. Details of patient examination with emphasis on relationship to history Total: 15
4 Management: investigations and treatment including specific reference to the management of symptoms outlined in 2, - pharmacological and non pharmacological, and the effectiveness of the treatment Total: 15
5 Discharge plans, transfer of care and prognosis. Interview with patient re: care received, identification of transfer of care issues, and the roles of different professionals in supporting transfer of care Total: 10
6 Evaluation of roles of doctors and other professionals and discussion with patient of his/her perspective [if possible]. Identification and demonstrating understanding of the roles of at least 2 members of the team Total: 10
7. Brief outline of pathophysiology of major clinical problems and of rationale for therapy 10
8 Student's self assessment and reflections/ lessons from case Total: 20
TOTAL SCORE out of 100

Consultant Name:.....

Signature:.....